Courses taken while studying abroad may also be substituted to meet minor requirements, though they might not satisfy General Education requirements. • A list of approved courses for the minor may be obtained in the IAS Academic Advising Office or on the departmental website. • No single course may be used by a student to satisfy a major requirement and a minor requirement. A course may be used, however, to satisfy both a major support requirement and a minor requirement. Requests to substitute a minor requirement must be approved in writing by the Latin American Studies coordinator.

Minors are available to all undergraduate students at OU. If the minor is officially declared, successfully completed, and noted on the graduation application, the student's transcript will so indicate at the time the bachelor's degree is posted.
