- At least 6 credit hours must be earned in courses acceptable for residence credit by standards set forth by the Department of International and Area Studies, excluding transfer, correspondence, and examination (AP, CLEP, Advanced Standing) credit.
- Students must successfully complete at least 15 hours of coursework in Middle Eastern Studies, including at least 9 hours at the upper-division level.
- Students are encouraged to study abroad in the Middle East. Courses taken while studying abroad may also be substituted to meet minor requirements, though they might not satisfy General Education requirements.
- All courses listed are approved for Middle Eastern Studies, though not all courses have been approved for General Education credit. Students may take other appropriate courses as approved by the Academic Adviser.
- No single course may be used by a student to satisfy a major requirement and a minor requirement. A course may be used, however, to satisfy both a major support requirement and a minor requirement. Requests to substitute a minor requirement must be approved in writing by the Middle Eastern Studies coordinator.
